

MAGAZINE, BANGALORE.

The 20th July 1874.

Tenders (sealed with wax) will be received by the Commissary of Ordnance, Bangalore, up to noon on Wednesday the 19th August 1874, at which time they will be opened by him in the presence of the parties concerned, for the purchase of the undermentioned articles :—

Iron, old cast Gun shot and shell, tons 29—10—0. Articles to be tendered for by ton.

Every tender must be accompanied by a deposit equal to 25 per cent of the amount of purchase money.

The successful tenders will deposit the remaining 75 per cent of the purchase money on or before the 31st August 1874, and will remove the articles purchased by 10th September 1874, failing which the 25 per cent deposit will be forfeited and the articles resold at the risk of the tender.

All tenders will be subject to the confirmation of the Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines, to whom they will be sent for the purpose.

The articles can be inspected and forms of tenders had on application at the Office of the Magazine, Bangalore, between 9 A. M. and 4 P. M. daily, Sundays and holidays excepted.

N. B.—Tenders will be held by the conditions specified in the Notification in the Fort Saint George Gazette, published in the issues for December 1872 ; particular attention is called to the condition that the rates should be entered in figures as well as in writing.

E. T. OUCHTEBLONY, Major, R. A.,
Commissary of Ordnance.

The Hymns of the Rig-Veda, in the Samhita and Pada Text, by Professor F. Max Müller, M. A., in two Volumes.—Price, Rs. 24 ; packing and postage, Re. 1—12.

* * The Rig-Veda, the oldest book of Indian literature, has very properly been made one of the principal class-books for those who study Sanskrit in the Schools and Colleges in India, and though at present a scholar-like knowledge of the Vedic hymns is in the examinations required of the more advanced students only, yet, as soon as editions, translations, grammars and dictionaries shall have rendered the study of these ancient documents more accessible, I doubt not that the time will come when no one in India will call himself a Sanskrit scholar, who cannot construe the hymns of the ancient Rishis of his country.—Extract from Preface.
